- 1. On 3 July all towns and traffic on the road from P'yongtaek (127-05, 37-00) north to Osan and Suwon were bombed and strafed from 2:40 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.* At Csun 5 of the attacking planes have been tentatively identified by a trained American observer as P-51's.
- 2. A reconnaissance of the above road revealed that one South Korean 37 millimeter anti-tank gun emplacement was strafed and the crew suffered casualties, One bomb crater was found in the road 55 feet from the gun. A half-mile further south an ammunition truck containing bazooks ammunition was burning. One bomb struck near the hospital at Sojong-ni (127-04, 37-04) and the town was strafed. There were civilian casualties,
- 3. Elements of the South Korean 17 regiment were strafed while digging in north of Plyongtack. There were 25 casualties, including the regimental commander. The town of P'yongtaek was strafed and bombed, and two fires were set. Ammunition which was exploded by the fires is endangering U. o. troops in the vicinity. Many South Korean Army vehicles have been set on fire along the entire length of road above.
- The wing insignia of the attacking planes was a white disk with a blue border placed on the underside of both wings. The planes were of a silver color. No Americans were injured. A high ranking American officer has definitely identified these as British Roundellons.
